CHARGED WITH MURDER.

The triat of Charles Gee, a Petersburg negro, charged with the murder of Sterling Lambert, will begin to-morrow before Judge West, of the Circuit Court, at Lawrenceville. Lambert was an elderly farmer, reputed to be well off and well connected, living in very primitive fashion in Brunswick county, about eight miles from Lawrencevile. His dead body was found partially submerged in a spring about a hundred yards from his house on the morning of November 19th, the throat being badly bruised and the mouth showing skins of gagging. Death by strangulation was the vertice of the coroner's jury, Gee is said to have been in the neighborhood on the day of the murder and to have threatened Lambert. He was arrested in Petersburg November 27th, and has been in jail at Lawrenceville ever since. He is defended by P. H. Drewry, of this city, and E. R. Turnbull, Jr., of Lawrenceville. Commonwealth's Attorney E. P. Buford is conducting the prosecution.

FACE AND ARMS ALL BROKEN OUT

Troubled Almost a Year-Physicians Did No Good - Complexion Now Perfect and Skin Soft, White and Velvety. Tennessee Lady

HIGHLY RECOMMENDS CUTICURA SOAP'

"I had been troubled with a breaking out on my face and arms for almost a year and had the services of several physicians, but they didn't seem to do any good. Some time ago one of my friends recommended Cutieura to me. I secured some, and after using it several months I was completely cured. I can highly recommend Cuticura Soap as being the very best complexion Soap made. It creates a perfect complexion, leaving the skin soft, white, and velvety. I now use Cuticura Soap all the time and recommend its use to my friends." Maud Loggins,

DOCTOR CHILES IS ACQUITTED

On Trial for Bringing About the Death of Miss Sarah Atkinson.

TESTIFIED IN HIS OWN BEHALF

James Panklin, Indicted Jointly With Aged Doctor, Elects to Have Separate Trial,

(Special to The Times-Disputch.) NORPOLK, VA., February 19.—The rial of Dr. Luther R. Chiles, indicted or the murder of Miss Sarah Atkinson, of Lambert's Point, whose death at the Norfolk Protestant Hospital followed a criminal operation alleged to have been performed by the defendant, was begun in the Corporation Court this morning, and ended to-night in a versit of acquittal.

The prisoner, aged and a complete wreek

The prisoner, aged and a complete wreek physically, plead not guilty. A formal demurrer to the indictment and objections raised by counsel for the defense to the manner in which the jury had been drawn were both overruled and after some little trouble a competent jury was sworn.

Judge Hanckel cited the cases of the Hoback trial and of the trial of Captain E. W. Jones here, in which there was a contention that the petit jury for a felony trial must be called for some special felony. He said that could not be known which felony would be tried first. The attorneys for the prosecution determined to take the risk of continuing the trial of Dr. Chiles despite the decision of the Supreme Court of Appeals in the Hoback case, where a new trial was ordered.

For Second Degree Murder.

Dr. Chiles was on trial for second d gree murder, the punishment for whi from five to eighteen years in the pen-

COLONEL C. C. VAUGHAN.

Vigorous Prosecution.

Both the State and the family of the dead girl prosecuted the case against Dr. Chiles with great vigor and the prosecution of young Franklin next month will be equally vigorous. Franklin appeared but little affected, and while he was in the court with friends part of the time he was mostly alone on the outside of the court-room, seemingly preferring not to hear the evidence. His counsel, however, remained in the court-room following every move by the prosecution, and the defense. Franklin's attorneys are Colonel George C. Cabell, of Norfolk, and H. C. Humphries, of Bedford City, Va.

Va.

The Franklin and Alkinson families both came from Bedford, and Altorney Nelson Sale, of that county, a life-long friend of the father of the deceased girl, is here assisting in the prosecution of Dr. Chiles. The case is conducted for the State by Commonwealth's Attorney John G. Tilton, and for the Atkinson family by Attorneys John J. Jeffries and Sale, Judge D. Tucker Brooke and James F. Duncan, city attorney, appearing for the defense.

Acquitted.

Acquitted.

The trial was concluded tonight. After the testimony of the prosecution and the dying statement of the victim, Dr. Chiles was heard in defense. He admitted that he performed an operation for a common complaint,
but denied that he performed any criminal operation.

He is nearly seventy years old, is Can't You Sleep?

Do you know that sleeplessness is caused by exhaustion of the nerve forces; exhaustion which if con-continued may end in nervous collapses. Don't resort to opiates and dangerous drugs to secure rest; try

Fehr's Malt Tonic

A simple combination of health and nerve building foods that enter the system through the blood and feed the nerve centers with the food they need. It soothes like a mother's voice at the cradle side.

Upon awakening you will have a clear
